

Privacy Policy for Rhiw Goch Accommodation Booking

We collect your name and contact details to confirm your reservation, comply with UK tax/insurance requirements, and ensure the safety of our guests. Your data is stored securely on our system and on the booking agent's platform (Airbnb, VRBO or StayInWales), which acts as a data-processor on our behalf. We retain the information for the duration of your stay and for up to five years thereafter for accounting and legal purposes. You have the right to request access to, correction of, or deletion of your personal data at any time. For further details, please see Airbnb's privacy policy (<https://www.airbnb.com/privacy>) and contact us directly at info@rhiw-goch.co.uk.
